Kyle's Outlet

I'll be handing out the schedules for working the coming home festival today. Our festival this year is expected to be one of the best ever, featuring the internationally acclaimed, four times grammy award nominated Pine Leaf Boys. Two of the Boys are locals. I know I can count on everyone to do their share.

I hope T-Paul will give us an update on the Old Time Threshing today.

Pass by the veteran's park at the corner of S. Adams and West South St. Final preparations are underway to install grass and plants. Should be in it's full glory by homecoming. Our club sponsored the fountain in the middle of the park. This park took a long time to develop, inspired by the work of a number of Welsh citizens.

Something else to be proud of

LSU posted the second-highest graduation rate in the Southeastern Conference in football, according to the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate data released this week.

LSU football's Graduation Success Rate, or GSR, of 77 trails only Vanderbilt's mark of 86. The only other SEC football program with a GSR above 70 is Florida at 76.

What a way to go!!

An old pastor lay dying. He sent a message for an Internal Revenue Service agent and his lawyer to come to the hospital.

When they arrived, they were ushered up to his room. As they entered the room, the pastor held out his hands and motioned for them to sit on each side of the bed. The pastor grasped their hands, sighed contentedly, smiled and stared at the ceiling.

For a time, no one said anything.

Both the IRS agent and lawyer were touched and flattered that the old man would ask them to be with him during his final moments. They were also puzzled because the pastor had never given any indication that he particularly liked either one of them.

Finally, the Lawyer asked, Pastor, why did you ask the two of us to come here?

The old pastor mustered all his strength, and then said weakly, Jesus died between two thieves, and that's how I'd like to go.
